

RUMMAGE SALE INFORMATION

The following Rummage Sale regulations are taken from the Village Code, Chapter 10 Article 14:

- It is unlawful for any individual to sell or offer for sale at a rummage sale in the Village, property other than personal property.
- No more than one rummage sale is permitted at any residence during any calendar year. (For exceptions, see Sec 10 Article 1405)
- Rummage sales should be limited in time to no more than the daylight hours of three consecutive days or two consecutive weekends.
- No items offered for sale at a rummage sale should be displayed:
  - a. in the front or side yard
  - b. the yard area between the public sidewalk and the front or side setback line, or,
  - c. in any public right of way
- Two signs of not more than four square feet are permitted to be displayed on the property where the rummage sale is being conducted.
- Two directional signs of not more than two square feet are permitted, provided that written permission to erect the signs is received from the property owners upon whose property the signs are to be placed.
- No sign or other form of advertisement should be exhibited for more than two days prior to the day of the sale.
- Signs must be removed each day at the close of the rummage sale or by the end of daylight, whichever first occurs.
- The individual or individuals holding a rummage sale and the owner or tenant of the premises on which the sale or activity is conducted, are both responsible for the maintenance of good order on the premises during the hours of the sale or activity. NO individual shall permit any loud or boisterous conduct on the premises nor permit vehicles to impede the passage of traffic on any roads or streets in the area of such premises. All individuals should obey the reasonable orders of any member of the Police or Fire Department of the Village in order to maintain the public health, safety and welfare.
- All parking of vehicles should be conducted in compliance with all the village laws and ordinances which apply. Further, the Police Department may enforce temporary controls to alleviate any special hazards and/or congestion created by the rummage sale.

The Village appreciates your cooperation in following these regulations. If you have any questions, please call the Clerk's Office at 847-2600.

THANK YOU, AND GOOD LUCK ON YOUR SALE!
