

© Barbara C. Williams

POLLINATOR PALOOZA III

FREE EVENT

YEAR OF THE BUMBLE BEE

Honoring the Rusty Patched Bumble Bee

SATURDAY, MAY 18, 2024
11:00 AM TO 2:00 PM
ESTABROOK PARK SITE #8

Become part of the solution to protecting pollinators. Join us on the Milwaukee River to celebrate and learn about pollinators, native plants and tips to create a safe haven for pollinators in your yard.

Participants:

Bird City, Discovery World, Friends of Estabrook Park, Friends of Shorewood Nature Preserve, Mequon Nature Preserve Beekeepers, MJD Apiary, Milwaukee County Ag. Extension, MMSD, Milwaukee Riverkeeper, Schlitz Audubon, Shorewood Conservation Committee, Shorewood Monarch Project, Shorewood Waters Project, Urban Ecology Center, WDNR, Wild Ones and Xerces Society.

Here's what's in-store for your visit:

- Pre-Palooza Weed-out - 9 am in parking lot
- Pre-Palooza Bird Walks -
- Pre-registration is required ----->
- Native Bee and Pollinator ID & Walk
- Pollinator Landscaping Ideas
- Pollinator Plant and Seed Giveaways
- Tour of Estabrook Park's Native Gardens
- Kids Fun: Bird House Painting, Bee Art, Building a Pollinator Hotel and Native Bee Habitat, Rain Barrel Painting, Shorewood Water Wheel prizes, and More!

Questions? Interested in partnering?

Contact Henry @ 414-243-0875