The resident reported receiving a letter that appeared to be from a law firm. The letter claimed that a small child fell and injured themselves on the resident's icy sidewalk. The letter was clearly a satiric letter in nature, was meant more as a joke, but at the same time it was meant for the homeowner to remedy their current 'icy state' to their sidewalk. The letter was handed out to a lot of other homes in the northwest area in the Village of Shorewood. Contact was made with the subject who was handing out letters, she was made aware of the multiple complaints about the letter, but also indicated that she would continue handing out the letters to people with icy sidewalks.

Roll Call Report

An Officer responded to [REDACTED] for a hit-and-run accident. Upon arrival, it was determined that the crash took place in the 4000/4100 block of N. Murray Ave. The caller/resident was forced to stop mid-block as an Amazon delivery driver parked in a no-parking zone, blocking traffic. The caller honked their horn, telling the driver to move, which prompted the deliveryman to become hostile and charge at the caller. Fearing for their safety, the caller attempted to maneuver around the delivery vehicle, inadvertently striking the rear driver's side quarter panel. The driver continued to their residence, where they dialed 911 to report the accident as their fault. The Amazon delivery driver did not call 911 or report the accident. The caller was advised to make a self-reportable accident claim online. Photos of the damage were taken, log entry only. Let it be noted the same exact scenario occurred with the caller in 2022 (22-006072), and upon an inspection of the area described above, there was no debris in the roadway indicating an accident.

The complainant came to the police department to report an incident with a county transit bus. The complainant stated he legally parked his vehicle just west on E Capitol Dr at N Morris Blvd on the southside of the street. Complainant stated when he exited the car Milwaukee County bus 5805 was stopped in the roadway behind him and the bus driver put his hands in the air in a sign of disgust while looking at the complainant. The complainant didn't know why the driver would be like that because the complainant was legally parked. The complainant walked towards the front of the car to walk in front of it. The bus drove past the complainant and the complainant stated the side of the bus struck his left arm above the elbow causing pain. The complainant stated at this time he was not seeking medical treatment so a crash report will not be filed. The bus company was contacted about the incident and is investigating.

The property manager was requesting assistance into the residence to take photographs of the interior (at the request of the property owner). The tenant wasn't allowing access into the home. Known past issues with the property and tenant. Contact wasn't made at the residence or with the tenant by phone. The tenant is supposed to be formally evicted on January 24th per the property manager. He was advised officers would not be going inside unless the tenant were to allow access. He was also advised to take photographs after the eviction to avoid any conflict. Advised.
