Officer dispatched to a noise complaint. Caller stated there is an ongoing noise complaint with the tenant below her. I had recently spoken with the downstairs tenant and had not heard loud music etc. I did not hear any loud music etc today. Log entry. Officer was then sent back to the same address for the same complaint an hour after the previous complaint. Caller stated other tenants in the building notify each other when the Police arrive on the property. Caller believes tenants informed her downstairs neighbor that Police were on scene so he turned his music down. Caller wanted me to enter her neighbors apartment so I could force the neighbor to turn down his music. I informed the caller I could not force entry into her neighbors apartment for this allegation. I attempted to make contact with the callers neighbor but there was no answer. I also did not hear any noise coming from the apartment. Log entry.
