Officer was dispatched to a theft of keys complaint. The tenant already reported the same incident to police (#26-000287). It is doubtful an actual theft took place, as the keys likely were lost in a transport van or in a doctor's office based on the caller's own statement. Officer attempted contact at her doctor's office and the keys were not observed in their lost property bin. Contact was also made with the transport service and the keys were not reported as being found or located. The caller was advised this was no longer a police matter and it is a civil matter based upon no actual theft or the intent to deprive her of her property.
